

Meeting of Regeneration & Transport Board, 24 May 2010

Summary

On 24 May 2010 the Regeneration and Transport Board will be hosted by Cambridgeshire County Council, and will meet in Cambridge. This paper outlines arrangements for the day.

Recommendations

Members are asked to note the planned itinerary for the 24 May 2010.

Action

Officers to take forward arrangements as agreed by members.

Contact Officer: Fatima de Abreu
Phone No: 020 7664 3136
Email: fatima.deabreu@lga.gov.uk

23 4

Meeting of the Board in Cambridge, 24 May 2010

There will be a meeting of the Regeneration & Transport Board at 11am on Monday 24 May 2010, preceded by Group meetings at 10am at the following location:

Cambridgeshire County Council

Meeting Room 128, Shire Hall

Castle Hill, Cambridge, CB3 0AP

(see local map and directions at Annex A)

11.00am – 1.00pm: Regeneration & Transport Board Meeting

Room 128, Shire Hall

1.00 – 1.30pm: Buffet Lunch

1.30 – 3.30pm: Members will be escorted on a local tour to include the following:

- The guided Busway;
- The site of a potential new railway station;
- The proposed Northstowe new town;
- The new Addenbrookes Access Road and southern fringe development;
- Cambridge Station, where a new transport interchange is being built.

3.30 – 3.45pm: Finish, allowing members travelling by train to depart from Cambridge Station

The LGA will only reimburse the cost of overnight accommodation if members need to leave home before 7am in order to attend the meeting. The LGA Group will where possible, negotiate reduced accommodation rates and advise councillors of LGA approved hotels. Email fatima.deabreu@lga.gov.uk

Directions to Cambridgeshire County Council, Shire Hall, Castle Hill, Cambridge, CB3 0AP

Nearest Station: Cambridge Station, Station Road, Cambridge, CB1 2JW

Shire Hall is the site of the County Council chamber, member offices and registry office. It is located 300m from the north-western perimeter of Cambridge city centre. The access point onto the site by foot and bike can be found from Castle Street.

There is only limited car parking available on site. The Central bus station at Drummer Street is around 1km away. The railway station on Station Road is 2.8km (1.7 miles) away.

