

5 July 2010

Several Members remained after the Board Meeting, and received a presentation from Joanna Averley, Commission for Architecture and the Built Environment (CABE). Members were asked to test ideas for how those involved in planning could be better informed and supported in setting local policies on design, and to take account of design issues in development control decisions.

CABE also held a stand at the LGA conference in Bournemouth.

The presentation is attached.

For further information, please contact javerley@cabe.org.uk www.cabe.org.uk