

“Love where you live” logo

1. Below is an initial version of the “Love where you live” logo that is likely to be taken forward to refresh the “tidyman” logo, having received the most positive feedback from councils and the public after different options were tested with them.

