

Evaluation of the LGA/CFOA Operational Assessment and Fire Peer Challenge Programme

Purpose of the Report

To give the FSMC early sight of the emerging findings of the the evaluation of the effectiveness of the LGA/CFOAOperational Assessment and Fire Peer Challenge Programme.

Summary

This presentation summarises the survey work and conclusions Cardiff University have drawn in order to:

- 1) Evaluate the effectiveness of the fire peer challenge methodology and the Operational Assessment Toolkit; and
- 2) Assess the overall impact of fire peer challenges in helping the sector with self-monitoring and improvement the position as at the date of issue of the report.

Dr James Downe, Cardiff University and Gary Hughes, Programme Manager, LGA will draw out key points Members may wish to discuss.

Recommendation

Members are asked to discuss the emerging findings and consider further action which may need to be progressed in the next phase of Fire Peer Challenges.

Action

Officers to progress as directed.

Contact officer: Gary Hughes
Position: Programme Manager
E-mail: gary.hughes@local.gov.uk