This standing order shall not apply to motions moved in pursuance of the report or recommendation of a Board or Panel

8.0 Rules of Debate

Respect for Chair

- 8.1 A representative, when speaking, must stand and address the Chair. He/she shall direct his speech to the question under discussion. When the Chair rises during a debate any member then standing must immediately stop speaking and sit down. If two or more delegates rise the Chair shall call on one to speak. The Chair shall decide all questions of order and his/her ruling upon all such questions or upon matters arising in debate shall be final and shall not be open to discussion.

Motion or Amendment – Procedure

- 8.2 A motion or amendment shall not be discussed unless it has been proposed and seconded by representatives of authorities in membership of the Association.
- 8.3 Representatives of authorities in corporate membership may propose and second motions or amendments only where these are of direct relevance to their statutory duties and responsibilities. They may not be seconded by a representative from the same authority as the mover of the motion or amendment.

Content of Amendment

- 8.4 An amendment must relate to the motion and either
- (a) leave out words;
 - (b) leave out words and insert or add others; or
 - (c) insert or add words;

Any such amendment must not have the effect of negating directly the original motion.

When a Member may Speak again on a Motion

- 8.5 No representative shall address the meeting more than once on any motion or amendment except:
- (a) the mover of an original motion shall have the right to reply immediately before the motion, or any amendment to it, is put;

- (b) if the seconder of an original motion or amendment formally seconds and sits down without speaking upon it, he/she may reserve the right of addressing the meeting later;
- (c) on a point of order or personal explanation

Length of Speech

- 8.6 No speech shall exceed three minutes except the speech of the proposer on the original motion which shall not exceed five minutes.

Debate on Amendment

- 8.7 Every motion or amendment shall be reduced to writing, signed by the mover and delivered to the Chief Executive when it has been seconded.
- 8.8 After a motion or an amendment has been seconded, it shall not be withdrawn without the leave of the meeting.
- 8.9 A representative may, with the consent of his/her seconder and of the meeting, signified without discussion, alter a motion which has been proposed or of which notice has been given if the alteration is one which could have been moved as an amendment thereto.
- 8.10 A proposer of a motion or of any amendment may, with the concurrence of the seconder and the consent of the meeting, withdraw the motion or amendment which he/she has proposed and it shall not be competent for any representative to speak upon it after the proposer has asked permission for its withdrawal, unless such permission shall have been refused.
- 8.11 If an amendment is rejected, other amendments may be moved on the original motion. If an amendment is carried the motion, as amended, takes the place of the original motion and becomes the motion upon which any further amendments may be moved.
- 8.12 A further amendment shall not be moved until the meeting has disposed of every amendment previously moved. After all amendments have been disposed of, the motion before the meeting shall be put without further debate.

Motions which may be Moved During Debate

- 8.13 A representative who has not already spoken in the debate may at the conclusion of a speech of another representative move without comment: -
- (a) “that the question be now put”;
 - (b) “that the debate be now adjourned”;
 - (c) “that the meeting proceed to the next business”; or
 - (d) “that the meeting do now adjourn”,

on the seconding of which the Chair, if in his/her opinion the motion before the meeting has been sufficiently discussed, shall, subject to the mover's right of reply, put the question to the vote and, if it is carried, the motion before the meeting shall be put to the vote or the subject of debate shall be deemed to be disposed of for that day, or the meeting may stand adjourned as the case may be.

Personal Explanation and Points of Order

- 8.14 A representative may rise on a personal explanation or a point of order at any time and is entitled immediately to address the Chair on the matter; but
- (a) a personal explanation shall be confined to some material part of an earlier speech by the representative and on which a misunderstanding has occurred
 - (b) the representative who raises a point of order must specify immediately a Standing Order and say how it has been broken or infringed;
 - (c) in either case the representative's speech must be confined to the personal explanation or point of order;
 - (d) the ruling of the Chair on a personal explanation or point of order is not open to discussion.

- 9.1 Questions shall wherever possible be determined by a show of hands.
- 9.2 A ballot may be held if

- 9.4 The actual votes cast, weighted in line with article 6 of the Constitution, will be determined retrospectively and the LGA will notify the Chief Executive of all member authorities of the result of the ballot within 3 working days of the meeting of the General Assembly.
- 9.5 Any voting card not completed in full and signed by the councillor will be considered a spoiled vote and will not be counted.

10.0 Notices

11.0 Suspension of Standing Orders

- 11.1 Any of the preceding standing orders may be suspended at any meeting, in respect of any business on the agenda for such meeting, provided that the majority of the representatives of authorities in full membership of the Association who are present and voting so decide.

Part 2: Meetings of the LGA Leadership Board, LGA Executive and Boards of the Association

12.0 Attendance at meetings

- 12.1 At every meeting each representative of a member authority shall enter his/her name on an attendance record provided by the Chief Executive from which attendance of such member authorities will be recorded.
- 12.2 Observers may attend any of the meetings covered in part 2 of the Standing Orders but shall not take part in discussions without the consent of the Chair and other lead members of that body. Observers shall not vote. Observers may be requested to leave the meeting if a confidential item is to be discussed.

13.0 Order of Business for LGA Leadership Board, LGA Executive and Boards

- 13.1 Election of a Chair, Vice-Chair and Deputy Chairs shall be the first item of business at the first meeting of the body after the Annual Meeting of the Association. The order of business at each Executive, Board or Panel meeting shall be

17.0 Suspension of Standing Orders

- 17.1 Any of the preceding standing orders may be suspended at any meeting, in respect of any business on the agenda for such meeting, provided that the majority of the representatives who are present and voting so decide.

LGA Political Conventions

1.0 Background

- 1.1 The LGA operates on a cross-party consensual basis as the legitimate voice of local authorities – independent of central government or opposition parties.
- 1.2 The LGA supports diversity; there is more than one correct response to society's problems and member authorities must have the right to respond to their communities in different ways. Differences must be respected and minority views must be able to be heard within the LGA. It follows that members of the LGA will not criticise publicly other member authorities of the LGA.
- 1.3 The LGA will seek to find solutions to problems of conflict by discussion; it will endeavour to avoid adversarial styles of political debate which assume that opposition views are incorrect because of their source; it will seek mechanisms designed to find new solutions rather than reiterating conventional wisdom.

2.0 Political Administration of the LGA

Political Structures/Cross Party Working

- 2.1 In the event of no group having an overall majority within the Association (that is over 50 per cent of the total weighted electorate), the principle of each political group playing a part in the Association will be respected. Immediately after local elections each year, the revised political balance of the LGA will be calculated and shared with the political groups. It will then be for the groups to discuss and decide the right way to reflect that principle.
- 2.2 Similar principles govern Boards, Panels and Commissions.
 - 2.2.1 Where there is no overall majority and the positions of Chairs and Vice Chairs are shared, the business of the LGA will continue to be conducted by consensus or majority opinion. In these circumstances, groups not holding the position of Chair or Vice Chair will be entitled to a Deputy Chair. Chairs and Vice Chairs must reflect the views of the LGA as a whole, regardless of the political group from which they are drawn. Political group offices may be used to issue statements on behalf of the group concerned, so long as their status is clear and the titles of LGA officeholders are not used.
 - 2.2.2 Where there is an overall majority, that group holds Chairs and Vice Chairs, with Deputy Chairs appointed by all eligible groups. Groups are entitled to a Deputy Chair if their share of the weighted electorate exceeds 5%.

Arrangements for chairs and other office holders following elections

- 2.3 In the period immediately after elections and before the first meeting of newly constituted Boards and Panels, it is normal for Chairs and other office holders to remain in place, provided they remain as councillors. Temporary nominations can be made if incumbents lose their seats. If the elections result in a change of control, however, it will be important for the existing Chair to act in concert with other party spokespeople until the new arrangements are in place.

Task Groups

- 2.4 Task groups may be appointed by the LGA Executive or a Board, with the approval of the LGA Executive. Task groups are expected to provide member oversight of specific business plan priorities, and should include members with relevant experience or expertise. They should be small enough (normally no more than 8 members) to enable effective working. Individual task groups need not achieve precise political balance, although the overall principles of proportionality should be reflected across all task groups.
- 2.5 Task groups should normally include a Board member, but that person need not chair the group. Chairs of task groups may be appointed from any political group. Proportionality will be observed in the appointment of Task Group chairs, but not so strictly as to inhibit the appointment of the chair most appropriate to the role and purpose of any particular task group. Substitutes will not be allowed.
- 2.6 Task groups will generally have delegated authority to oversee a project, within a remit approved by the sponsoring Board. Normally, there should be no need for the task group to seek further approval from a sponsoring Board unless they propose a significant departure from the original objectives or design of the project.

Fire Commission

- 2.7 The Fire Commission is open to membership by all Combined Fire & Rescue Authorities and by principal authorities with a fire & rescue service. Representation and voting at meetings is on the basis of population and is set out in Annex 2 to the Constitution.
- 2.8 The Fire Commission has a management committee which reports to the Community Safety Board but which may act on behalf of the Commission. The General Assembly has the overriding power to vary or modify the structure, and to determine terms of reference, delegated powers and rules for transaction of their business.

Agenda

- 2.9 Chairs, Vice-Chairs and Deputy Chairs of Boards, Commission, the LGA Leadership Board, and the LGA Executive will have the right to call for relevant items to be placed on an agenda.

Administrative Arrangements

- 2.10 Chairs, Vice Chairs and Deputy Chairs will be consulted on administrative arrangements for business and meetings of Boards, Commission, the LGA Leadership Board, and the LGA Executive, including dates and times of meetings and appointment of advisers.

Substitutes

- 2.11 The Constitution allows for the attendance of substitutes at meetings of Boards and the LGA Executive. Substitutes must be from the same political party. In relation to the LGA Executive, substitutes for chairs of Boards from the same political party will be permitted, but in addition, in the absence of the chair of a Board, the Vice Chair of that Board will be able to attend to speak, but not vote, on items within that Board's remit.

Chair's casting vote

- 2.12 The Constitution provides for the Chair of a Board or Panel to have a casting vote. The casting vote will not be used to change or establish LGA policy.

Special Interest Groups

- 2.13 Special Interest Groups are open to membership by all authorities in membership of the LGA sharing a particular interest. The LGA's rules of political and authority proportionality cannot apply. Special Interest Groups will develop rules of procedure for formal approval by the LGA Leadership Board. Groupings of classes of authority will be regarded formally as Special Interest Groups.
- 2.14 Special Interest Groups are able to speak for their interests as part of the LGA provided that their policies or statements do not conflict with or undermine LGA policy as a whole, or damage the interests of other member authorities. Finance is an area of particular difficulty. Local authority interests in the national financial settlements for local government may differ and create conflict between individual or groups of authorities. The LGA will wish to seek to ensure that such differences do not damage the case for the overall quantum of resources but will recognise the right of authorities, individually or in groups, to make their own case and to have technical support to do so, even where this may be in conflict with the interests of other authorities. Authorities are expected to respect each other's positions and to bear in mind the need to express arguments about the merits of their own case, rather than the perceived weaknesses of others.

Emergency Situations

- 2.15 In situations which threaten the organisation, the reputation of local government or the well-being of communities that the LGA represents, the LGA's Chairman and Group Leaders will constitute an Emergency Group to lead the Association's response. The Group may supplement its membership as it considers appropriate to the circumstances of the emergency.

3.0 Support for Political groups

Budget allocation

- 3.1 The constitution allows for Political groups recognised by the Association, whose total share of the weighted electorate is five per cent or more, to receive reasonable support from the Association to enable them to play their part in influencing parties on behalf of member authorities.

- 3.2 The Association will allocate the following funding:-
- 3.2.1 The cost of salaries for Group Office staff in line with a maximum establishment agreed with the LGA Leadership Board
 - 3.2.2 A purchasing budget, divided on the basis of the proportions of weighted electorate used to establish the political balance of the LGA. Political groups may use their purchasing budget to secure additional staff, specially commissioned research or support services.
- 3.3 The allocations between the Groups will be reviewed and adjusted annually to reflect changes in proportionality and financial pressures within the Association.

Group Office staff

- 3.4 Staff appointed to support the political groups will be employees of the Association and will be entitled to have normal access to the data and documents produced by the Association. Staff will be managed by the Chief Executive of the Association or his/her nominee.

Support services

- 3.5 The establishment for each Group Office includes a political support assistant, who is responsible for providing administrative support to the Group Office. All other support services, including IT equipment is provided via the Association's external supplier, Liberata in line with the contract between the Association and Liberata.
- 3.6 The costs of political group meetings will be charged to the Group's budget. Groups may choose to pay expenses or special responsibility allowances to Group Office Holders.
- 3.7 Subject to availability, meeting and conference rooms in Local Government House may be used free of charge for LGA activities. Refreshments will be charged to the Group budget.
- 3.8 During pre-election periods when the Association does not engage in political controversy, facilities at Local Government House may not be booked by party groups without the approval of the Chief Executive or his/her nominee. Party groups may not organise meetings involving other party group members without consultation with all Group Leaders of the Association.

4.0 Impartiality of Staff

- 4.1 As in local authorities, the staff of the Association, with the exception of Group Office staff, will be politically impartial and will give all groups, their officers and spokespersons, equivalent advice, assistance and support, as resources allow. All staff will strive to ensure that the rules and conventions governing the Association's work are implemented fully and fairly.
- 4.2 All staff outside the Group Offices must seek the approval of the Chief Executive if they wish to stand for, or hold, elected office.

- 4.3 Political groups may, with the agreement of the Chief Executive, invite officers of the Association to attend Group meetings to provide information, advice or confidential briefings on particular matters. Political groups may, with the approval of the other Group Leaders, commission research from an officer of the Association.

5.0 Representation on Outside Bodies and Delegations

Outside Bodies

- 5.1 Every effort will be made to ensure that all groups recognised by the Association are fairly represented on outside bodies both numerically and in terms of the range/type of appointments made. Each Board or Panel should aim as far as possible to achieve political proportionality across all the appointments it makes to outside bodies. Appointments to individual outside bodies should reflect political balance where possible, subject to the constraints set by the number of appointments to individual bodies.

Delegations

- 5.2 The purpose of delegations from the LGA is to have the maximum effect in representing the interests of local government to other bodies. It will be important to balance the interests of effectiveness (which will often imply small, tightly focused delegations) and representativeness which implies larger numbers.
- 5.3 The Chairman or the Chair of the relevant Board in consultation with officers, will agree the most appropriate structure, and representation, for the meeting. Where small delegations are preferred, the Association will not necessarily be represented by the Chair and/or office holders of the body concerned, and political balance will not be an overriding factor in deciding representation.
- 5.4 Members nominated to represent the Association will recognise their responsibility to represent the views of the LGA as a whole.
- 5.5 It is expected that Members sitting on Outside Bodies provide regular feedback to their nominating Board.
- 5.6 Where larger numbers are appropriate, every effort will be made to have politically balanced delegations. The relevant Board or Panel will be informed of the meeting and advised of the composition of the delegation, and will receive copies of briefing and feedback from the meeting.
- 5.7 It is recognised that there will be private, informal or party political meetings where it is inappropriate to have politically balanced delegations, and they may be briefed or attended by non-political staff for technical support.

Wales

- 5.8 In recognition of its constitutional position, Wales will be represented so far as possible on all outside bodies and delegations which are set up to address those matters of concern to England and Wales as a whole.

6.0 Public Statements on behalf of the Association

- 6.1 Public statements made in the name of the LGA by the Chair or Vice Chair of a Board or Panel will represent the views of the LGA as a whole and not those of any one political group. The following procedures for media and public statements will apply subject to special arrangements during an election period set out in paragraph 6.5.

Planned LGA publications or similar initiatives

- 6.2 The following process should be adopted:-
- 6.2.1 Consult with Group Leaders on the approach to be adopted in the statement;
 - 6.2.2 Group Leaders to agree in whose name a statement should be made or agree that a statement be issued with no personal attributions;
 - 6.2.3 Group Leaders to agree either a suitably experienced councillor to speak on behalf of the Association on the broadcast media or a slate of suitably experienced councillors with details of their availability.
- 6.3 In the absence of agreement by the Groups, or of a suitably experienced councillor, an appropriate senior officer can speak on behalf of the Association. A briefing note will be prepared setting out the LGA's policy position as the basis of any statements and comments made on behalf of the LGA or its constituent central bodies

Government announcements and decisions of which the Association has advance notice

- 6.4 As for planned LGA statements, with additional emphasis on the need for flexibility and pace to meet externally set timescales.

Announcements and developments of which the Association has no advance notice

- 6.5 Precise handling will inevitably vary from case to case depending on the circumstances, but the key principles are that:
- 6.5.1 As far as possible statements should reflect a cross-party view within the Association;
 - 6.5.2 Where such a view can be established the Chair or Vice Chair may issue a statement. If this is not possible:
 - Written statements should be issued in the name of the Association without any personal attribution;
 - An appropriate senior officer will be made available for broadcast interviews.

- 6.6 Where the LGA has an established policy position this will form the basis of any public statement. Where this is not the case, discussions will be held with the appropriate lead members to establish the basis of the Association's reaction to any statements.
- 6.7 On occasions it may be appropriate for Groups to issue their own public statements. The status of such news releases/statements will be made clear.
- 6.8 To preserve political impartiality, no public statement will be made by the Association, or staff of the Association, without the agreement of the Chair of the Association and all group leaders
- ◆ during the period between the announcement of a dissolution of Parliament and the holding of a General Election,
 - ◆ during the period of a campaign for elections to the European Parliament or
 - ◆ for the four weeks preceding local authority elections.

7.0 Conferences

Chairing Sessions

- 7.1 Where possible the Chair, or other lead member of the appropriate Board should have the opportunity to introduce and/or chair conferences and events run by the LGA to present the Association's policy line.
- 7.2 Where the nature or timing of the event precludes this, chairing arrangements should be discussed and agreed with the Group Offices.

Councillors as speakers

- 7.3 The Association must ensure that as far as possible its conferences as a whole, reflects its political structure and balance. Although it is not possible to achieve a precise political balance in any one conference, the following factors will be considered when involving councillors as speakers or as chairs:
- 7.3.1 If a councillor is speaking, is he/she presenting the formal position of the Association (for example as chair of a Board), or of his/her authority, or a political view? If the latter, the conference must include speakers from the other groups.
- 7.3.2 If there are a number of sessions, the chairs and/or speakers will as far possible be distributed between the main Groups according to political proportionality.
- 7.3.3 When identifying authorities to illustrate good practice, efforts will be made to ensure that as far as possible all parties are represented.

Ministers and other politicians

- 7.4 Ministers speak at many LGA events. This is important as it reinforces the LGA's status as the national voice for local government and helps maximise delegate numbers.
- 7.5 Where Ministers speak at one-day events, it will not always be practical or appropriate to include speakers from the other political parties. However the following factors will be taken into account:-

- 7.5.1 if the focus of the event is largely on the implementation of, or practical implications for local authorities on, new legislation or new Government procedures or guidance, it will not normally be necessary or appropriate to involve speakers from the other political parties;
 - 7.5.2 if the focus of the event is to debate a new or developing aspect of Government policy, then the programme should normally involve speakers from the other political parties;
 - 7.5.3 the programme for major two or three day events should always be politically balanced.
- 7.6 The lead members of the sponsoring Board and/or the political offices will be consulted on the selection of political speakers.
