Venue: Rathbone Rooms 1&2, 7th Floor, Local Government House, Smith Square, London, SW1P 3HZ

Attendance

An attendance list is attached as Appendix A to this note.

Item Decisions and actions

1 Declarations of Interest

Mayor Sir Steve Bullock declared a personal, non-prejudicial interest in Items 12 and 15 as a member of an LGA pension scheme (Item 12) and Director of AMA (Properties) Ltd (Item 15). Sir Steve also declared an interest in Item 11 – IDeA's Revenue Support Grant 2016/17 onwards.

2 Centre for Public Scrutiny: Annual Report

Jacqui McKinlay, Executive Director, thanked the LGA for the opportunity to address the Board. Jacqui informed Members that Lord Bob Kerslake took on the role of Chair of CfPs when Nick Raynsford MP stood down and that she had become Executive Director of the Centre following the departure of Jessica Crowe. She explained that Trustees were confident that these changes put CfPS in an excellent position to build on its track record to date but also adapt quickly to meet the changing demand from local government and the wider public sector.

Cllr Tony Jackson, Member of CfPS Board presented the Centre's Annual Report. Cllr Jackson set out the Centre's activities in 2013/14 arising from its partnership with the LGA and its planned work programme for 2014/15 which had been discussed and agreed with LGA's representatives.

With regard to the sector led improvement agenda, Cllr Jackson highlighted the comprehensive support delivered by the Centre to a number of local authorities on issues including, expert assistance on devolution and governance, particularly governance change.

Concluding his presentation, Cllr Jackson thanked the Leadership Board for the LGA's continued support and contribution to the work of CfPS.

Jacqui McKinlay responded on a number of comments made by members on issues including local public accounts committees and the scrutiny of health and wellbeing boards.

Decision

The Leadership Board noted the performance of the Centre for Public Scrutiny in 2013/14.

3 Local Partnerships: Annual Report

Alderman Sir David Wootton presented Local Partnerships Annual Report on the achievements of 2014/15, both in terms of benefit to local government and on the final performance for the year, including how the LGA's RSG contribution was used.

Sir David was pleased to report that Local Partnerships performed well against its four main objectives for 2014/15 and drew attention to its financial performance. In particular, they developed and supported new programmes of housing and regeneration support and another supporting Growth Fund transport projects by LEPs and their local authority delivery partners.

Decision

The Leadership Board

- noted the performance of Local Partnerships in 2013/14;
- agreed to continued future working between the LGA and Local Partnerships to their mutual benefit.

4 "Investing in our nation's future" - the first 100 days of the new government

Laurence Meehan, Head of Campaigns and External Communications, introduced a report which looked at the achievements and activities of the LGA's campaign, "Investing in our nation's future, the first 100 days of the new government." The LGA Executive would consider this report on 17 September.

Cllr Jim McMahon (Oldham) stressed the need to continue to monitor the LGA's "100 Days" "Asks."

5 LGA's Spending Review Work

Stephen Hughes, Executive Director, introduced a report highlighting the LGA's formal submission to the 2015 Spending Review process and setting out the planned work programme of engagement and media work throughout the autumn. This report would also be considered by the LGA Executive on 17 September.

Stephen Hughes referred in particular to the need for Government to provide full funding of the adult social care funding gap which was growing by just over £700 million a year on average. This was set out in the 'Adult social care, health and wellbeing: A Shared Commitment' (a joint paper with the Association of Directors for Social Services).

Cllr Sharon Taylor (Stevenage), on behalf of the Board, thanked officers for their work on the spending review submission over the summer time.

Members made a number of detailed comments, which were noted by officers, on issue including:

- the changes to housing finance and the implications for the Housing Revenue Account (HRA);
- the costs of additional school places;
- the need to ensure that all New Burdens are fully funded.
- the escalating costs of Adult Social Care;
- the recent EU ruling that for workers with no fixed office, travel should be counted as working time, and its implications for employers;
- the lack of affordable housing.

Referring to the spending review submission from the LGA/Chief Fire Officers' Association, Councillor David Hodge (Surrey County Council) expressed his disappointment at the lack of ambition in the submission.
