

Special Interest Groups (SIGs) - 2014 Annual Reports

Purpose

For information and discussion.

Summary

All Special Interest Groups are required, under the LGA Constitution, to submit a full report to the LGA Leadership Board each year. The LGA requires that these reports should feature the key aims and objectives of the group, its current membership and lead authority and a description of key activities and outcomes of any work undertaken during the past year. Copies of the SIG Annual Reports received to date are available on request and a hard copy and will be available at the meeting for Members to view. The LGA's Statement for Special Interest Groups is attached at Appendix A.

Recommendations

The LGA Leadership Board considers this report and indicates:

1. Whether it has any future requirements in respect of Special Interest Groups (SIGs); and
2. Whether it wishes to invite any special interest groups to a future LGA Executive meeting to discuss their work.

Action

Officers to take forward in accordance with the Leadership Board's views.

Special Interest Groups (SIGs) - 2012 Annual Reports

Background

1. The LGA Constitution provides for member authorities with common characteristics or interests to form Special Interest Groups. A list of the current groupings, which have been approved by the LGA Executive and established as Special Interest Groups since the LGA was formed in April 1997, is attached at Appendix B.

2014 Annual Reports

2. 16 Special Interest Groups have submitted Annual Reports this year. The remaining SIGs who have not yet submitted reports are:
 - 2.1. Affordable Loans Network*
 - 2.2. Fourth Option (FOSIG)
 - 2.3. Key Cities

This SIG has not been active in the last 12 months.*

Financial/Resource Implications

3. Special Interest Groups are encouraged to raise their own resources from their membership and administer these resources themselves. However, the LGA does offer limited administrative support and the use of meeting rooms, free of charge. The LGA does not pay any allowances or travel and subsistence costs to members attending SIG meetings.
