

Business Plan outcome	Reporting manager	What have we delivered and is it helping to achieve the business plan outcome?	Traffic light: are we on track to deliver what we said we would deliver by year end?
Funding for local government: Reform of the finance system so councils have confidence that their financing is sustainable and fair, the opportunities to raise more funds locally and greater ability to promote collective working across local public services.
Future spending reviews deliver fair, timely and flexible local government finance settlements, in particular for social care, children's services and waste. Based on our earlier research showing a likely funding gap of £16.5 billion, we will develop models for the future funding of local services in support of community budgets, as well as proposals for the reform of the local government finance system. Councils are effective in dealing with the impact of reduced funding, taking steps to ensure that they continue to be financially sustainable. We will provide practical support and advice to councils on surviving financially, coping with uncertainty and taking big difficult decisions on spending.	Alan Finch	Each local authority has received a financial sustainability spidergram report. A second generation model has been prepared and will be sent to councils shortly	Green

Councils have devolved powers and are able to develop new and innovative ways to encourage investment and create jobs. We will make the case for local authority bonds and explore opportunities for pension fund investment in infrastructure along with other ways to raise finance.	Paul Raynes	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Phase 1 of the bonds project is now complete and we have 20 councils prepared to be publicly associated with the project with a further 21 expressing varying levels of interest</li> <li>Executive Board approved a move to phase 2 on 21st November</li> </ul>	Green
Councils have the opportunity to generate new income streams and new approaches to commissioning. We will build on the work we have been doing with councils in the main areas of spend - children, adults and families - and also procurement and capital and assets, to share learning and good practice across different public agencies.	Alan Finch	Our social investment work has so far delivered a number of workshops, articles, board bulletin items, blog posts; and 4 PAs have been trained	Green
Public Service Reform: Independent councils are at the centre, and are seen to be at the centre, of public service reform, delivering more effective services for local people and holding other providers to account.
There is a fundamental and ambitious rethink to the way local services are funded and organised to achieve the economic and social benefits as well as short and long-term savings from full integration. We will work with the whole place community budget pilots to enable other areas to follow their approaches, identify the national financial impact of scaling up the pilots' proposals, and identify and lobby for the changes that Whitehall now needs to make.	Paul Raynes	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Community Budgets endorsed in spending round with new organisational and financial support for councils undertaking transformation work</li> <li>The Locality/LGA bid to run the Our Place support contract was successful</li> </ul>	Green
Adult social care is reformed so that the individual's experience of care and support is improved. We will continue to influence the wider reform agenda in adult social care to ensure the new system is easier to navigate, provides quality services and supports people to plan ahead for the future. We will help make the appropriate connections between care, health, housing and benefits so that the reform agenda is based on the principle of supporting individuals' general wellbeing.	Sally Burlington	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Care Bill Bulletin and Website launched. 1,600+ bulletin recipients.
